CFA Institute Seeks Volunteers for GIPS Standards Committees
We are seeking volunteers to serve on the following oversight committees that promote ethics and integrity and instill trust through the use of the GIPS standards:

GIPS Executive Committee
This committee serves as the governing body of the GIPS standards, and is responsible for the strategic development, promotion, adoption and implementation of the Standards, and oversight of the Standards.

GIPS Technical Committee
This committee is responsible for technical oversight of the GIPS standards. The Technical Committee is authorized to issue guidance, Q&As, and interpretations.

If you are interested in these or other opportunities to volunteer with the GIPS standards, please contact standards@cfainstitute.org. The deadline to submit Nominations Applications for the above mentioned volunteer openings is 20 June 2014.

CFA Institute Seeks Volunteers for the United States Investment Performance Committee (USIPC)
CFA Institute is currently seeking volunteers to serve on the United States Investment Performance Committee. The USIPC serves as a country sponsor committee for the GIPS standards and acts as a forum for stakeholders of the Standards in the United States. The committee discusses pertinent issues faced by industry professionals in the U.S. market and develops resources and promotional materials. For more information or to apply for the opening, please send us an e-mail and include your resume by 31 May 2014.

Exposure Draft for Firm Notification Requirement Released for Public Comment
The GIPS Executive Committee seeks comment on the proposed new requirement for firms that claim compliance with the GIPS standards to notify CFA Institute of such claim. The purpose of this new requirement is to address the expressed requests of various stakeholders across the globe for more information related to compliance with the GIPS standards. The information gathered will also help stakeholders of the GIPS standards understand trends that indicate where growth in the adoption of the GIPS standards is taking place, which markets need more resources, where more promotional efforts should be focused, etc.

Comments will be accepted through an online form for the very first time. Please submit your feedback no later than Monday, 7 July 2014.

GIPS Executive Committee Open In-Person Meeting
The GIPS Executive Committee has scheduled an open in-person meeting on Friday, 6 June 2014 at 8:00 to 9:00 a.m. US Eastern Time in Charlottesville, Virginia, USA. If you would like to attend this meeting, please send an email message to standards@cfainstitute.org before Tuesday, 6 May 2014.

Latest Developments in GIPS
The GIPS team of CFA Institute around the world – Annie Lo in the Asia-Pacific region, Beth Kaiser, Ken Robinson, and Anju Grover in the Americas region, and Iain McAra in the EMEA (Europe, Middle East, and Africa) region were asked to discuss upcoming updates to the GIPS standards. You can read about these updates in the April 2014 edition of Asia Asset Management magazine.
