

Thank You and Happy Holidays

The GIPS® standards team would like to thank our GIPS Country Sponsors and many GIPS volunteers for their amazing contributions over the past year and to our supporters (you) who also recognize the importance of a global standard in performance measurement. We wish you all a very joyous holiday season and a healthy and peaceful New Year.

We Want to Hear from You

The revised Guidance Statement on the Use of Supplemental Information exposure draft has been released for public comment. This revised guidance provides new and more detailed interpretation on the treatment of performance and performance-related information both within and outside of a GIPS-compliant presentation. This clarification should help firms better understand the GIPS standards requirements and recommendations pertaining to supplemental information. Please submit your comments and feedback via email to standards@cfainstitute.org; the public comment period is open until 28 February 2017.

For more information about this exposure draft, visit the GIPS website and listen to the recording (or view the slides) from our webinar: "GIPS Revised Supplemental Information Exposure Draft – What's New."
