Happy New Year
The GIPS standards team would like to wish you a healthy and peaceful New Year. We also offer a special thank you to our many GIPS volunteers for their amazing contributions over the past year and to our supporters (you) who also recognize the importance of a global standard in performance measurement.

GIPS Executive Committee Open Conference Call
The GIPS Executive Committee has scheduled an open conference call for Wednesday, 27 January from 9:00 to 9:30 a.m. US Eastern Standard Time (EST) to provide updates. If you would like to attend this call as an observer, please view the materials and dial-instructions for the upcoming GIPS Executive Committee open conference call.

Webinar — Pooled Funds
The GIPS Technical Committee approved the Guidance Statement on Broadly Distributed Pooled Funds at its 7 December 2015 meeting. We expect to release an exposure draft of this new guidance statement for public comment in late January. Register for our webinar, "Guidance Statement on Broadly Distributed Pooled Funds," scheduled for Thursday, 28 January at 8 p.m. US EST, to learn more and ask questions about the new guidance. Register here.

We will also be holding another webinar that will go into more detail on the concepts contained in this new guidance statement in March, so please stay tuned for further details.

New GIPS Q&A
On 10 November 2015, the GIPS Technical Committee approved a new Q&A on "Temporary New Accounts." This new Q&A has been added to the GIPS Q&A Database. You can access it by searching the database for current Q&As in the "cash flow" category.

Save the Dates — Annual GIPS Standards Conference
This year marks the 20th anniversary of the GIPS Standards Annual Conference, slated for 22-23 September in Boston, Massachusetts, United States. We're also commemorating the 30th anniversary of the GIPS standards. The GIPS Standards Annual Conference is the only conference of its kind focused on the implementation and application of the GIPS standards. Subject matter experts share best practices and speak to the key issues and major developments in performance measurement, making this conference essential for any performance or compliance professional. Gain a general understanding of investment performance standards and measurement tactics, learn about recent or proposed changes to the GIPS standards, understand how to ensure that your firm maintains compliance, and meet other performance specialists from around the world.

Stay tuned in the coming months for more details about the 2016 GIPS Standards Annual Conference and workshops.

Asset Manager Code of Professional Conduct
To date, 1,242 firms in 40 countries have registered with CFA Institute as claiming compliance with the Asset Manager Code. You now have the ability to search for firms claiming compliance with the Asset Manager Code on the CFA Institute website by name, city, province, or country. To learn more about the Code and how it can benefit your firm, watch a recorded version of the Overview of Compliance with the CFA Institute Asset Manager Code of Professional Conduct or view the slide deck.
Ethical Decision-Making for Investment Professionals Online Course
CFA Institute recently launched a self-paced ethical decision-making course for members. This course presents the ethical decision-making framework and uses multimedia case studies of real-world situations to test your application of the framework. Take the course to see how many clients you can bring to your virtual waiting room. The course qualifies for 1.5 SER continuing education credits.
